KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

George M. Abraham, MD, MPH, MACP, FIDSA, FRCP, FEFIM

Dr. George M. Abraham, professor of medicine at the University of Massachusetts Medical School and chief of medicine at Saint Vincent Hospital, Worcester, Mass., will share insights as former president of the American College of Physicians (ACP) and his current role as chair-elect of the Board of Directors of the Federation of State Medical Boards.

He earned his medical degrees from the Christian Medical College, Ludhiana, India, completed his residency and chief residency at Saint Vincent Hospital, and received his master's degree in public health from the Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health.

Susan V. George, MD, FRCP, MACP, SFHM

The weekend's second guest presenter will be Dr. Susan V. George who will offer the lecture, "The Evolution of Learning and Teaching in Medicine." She will impart her perspective on how medical education has evolved over time and what the future direction might be. Dr. George is a professor of medicine at the University of Massachusetts Medical School and the program director of the Internal Medicine Residency Program at Saint Vincent Hospital. She worked as a hospitalist for 17 years and in 2017 transitioned to outpatient primary care.

She earned her medical degree from the National University of Singapore and is also a Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, London. She completed her residency training at Saint Vincent Hospital, Worcester, Mass., and served as chief resident there in 1999-2001.
